

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A weeding tool for selectively engaging, gripping and removing a weed from the ground. The weed extraction device utilizes an elongated handle with a remotely operable weed engagement jaw on an angular offset ground engagement end. A jaw activation lever pivotally extends from the handle that also becomes a fulcrum after the jaw closes on the weed to remove the weed from the ground after it has been electively gripped in one continuous motion.

5